The Luti Law Firm Awards Minority Student Academic Scholarship For Spring 2004

Los Angeles, February, 2004: The Luti Law Firm academic scholarship was awarded this month to Claudine L. Guerrero, a Pasadena Community College student. The scholarship pays the tuition and books for deserving minority students in the Los Angeles area. The award's criteria has a preference toward minority students from disadvantaged backgrounds. The scholarship is awarded to such students that have exhibited an interest in civil rights and demonstrated significant community involvement. "Our congratulations go out to Ms. Guerrero," said Anthony Luti, founding principal of the Luti Law Firm. "The Luti Law Firm is proud to provide college scholarships to deserving minority students. Finances should never be an impediment to an education, particularly in this day and age."
